My dear Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above named subject. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the result of the investigation. I have been very anxious to see that the matter was properly conducted, and I have no doubt that the result is as fair as the circumstances would admit of. I have no objection to your making such use of the facts as you may think proper, and I am sure that you will be able to present the case in the most favorable manner.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Wm Pitt

Robert, Maurice.

... A code for the collector of beautiful books; preface by Francis de Miomandre; translated from the French by Jacques LeClerq. New York, The Limited editions club, 1936.

xiii, [1], 55, [1] p. 27 cm.

At head of title: By Maurice Robert and Frederic Warde.

"This manuscript was originally written by Maurice Robert and published under the title 'Code de la bibliophilie moderne' by the Union latine d'éditions in Paris. It was translated, by Jacques Le Clercq, into English and then underwent a thorough revision at the hands of Frederic Warde, who sought to make the phraseology more intelligible to American collectors and prepared a new list of 'terms'
